PUBLIC NOTICE Posted 19 November, 2014

Election Recount and new Town Council

Following the close of the polls on 3 November, 2014, the Returning Officer declared Micheal Murphy elected as Mayor with a total of 303 votes. Natasha Dunn received 298 votes. On 14 November, 2014 a Judge of the Provincial Court undertook a recount of the ballots cast for Mayor. A ballot previously declared spoiled by the Returning Officer was found to be valid by the Judge resulting in the number of votes for Natasha Dunn increasing by one. The Judge ruled that 303 votes were cast for Micheal Murphy and 299 votes were cast for Natasha Dunn. Micheal Murphy has therefore been re-elected as Mayor.

On the evening of 14 November, 2014, at Alberton Town Hall, the Chief Administrative Officer swore in Micheal Murphy as Mayor and Connie Bernard, David Cahill, Alan Curtis, Blair Duggan, Rosetta Tremblay, and Kelly Williams as Town Councillors. The first meeting with the Mayor and Town Council was held on 17 November, 2014.
